Mr. Coin Dealer:

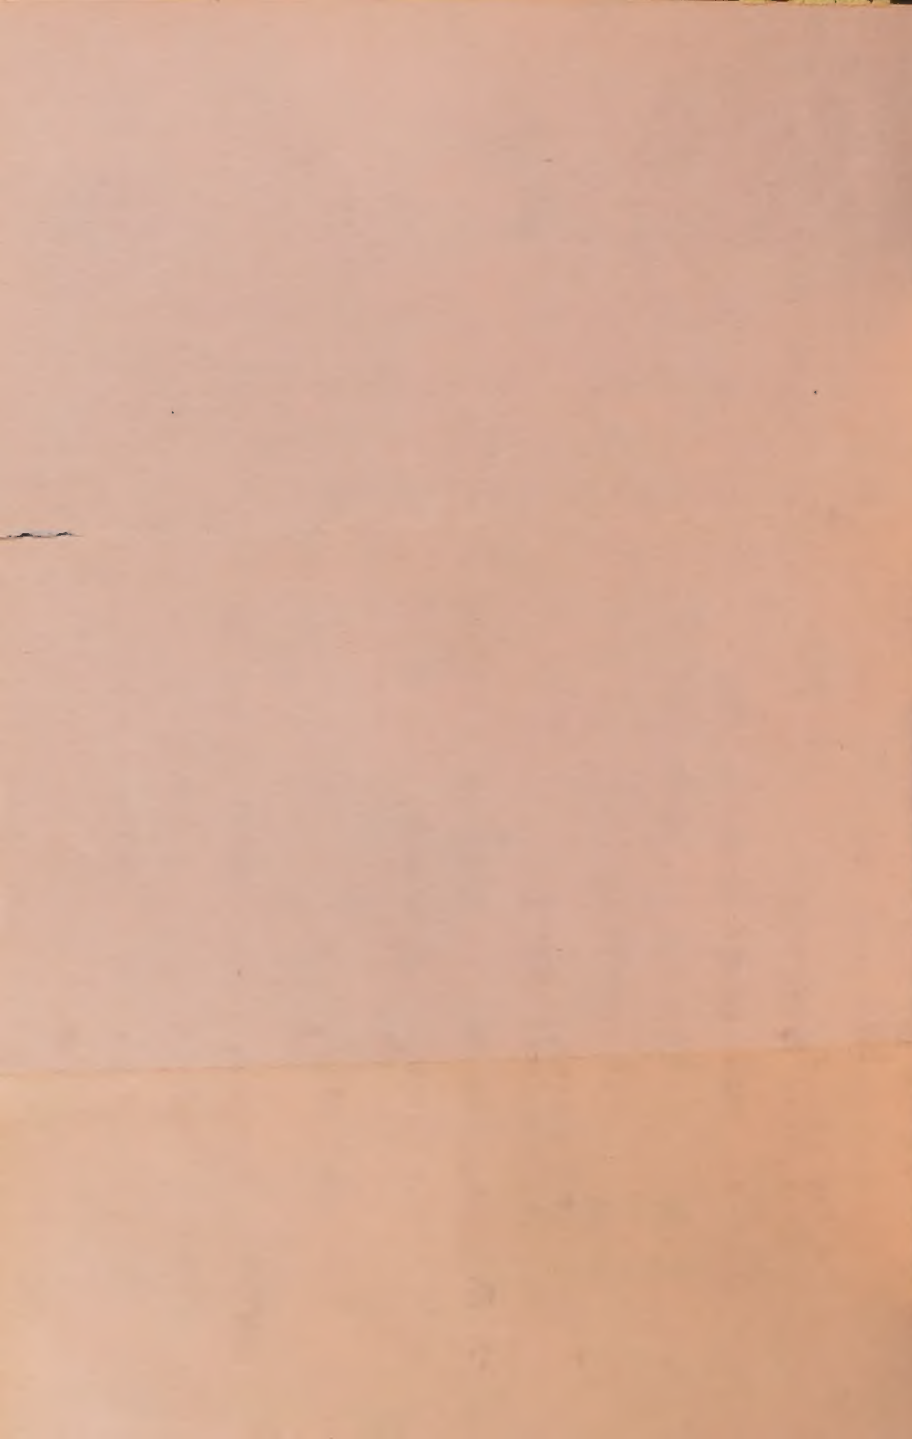

There are many of your business in this city. Those with whom I have talked, price the pieces which I have listed a trifle higher than I can afford to go. If they were priced lower, I could buy more.

Let me have your lowest prices on any of the coins you may have. You might keep my list for future reference, but be sure to give condition and complete description on what you offer.

Respectfully,

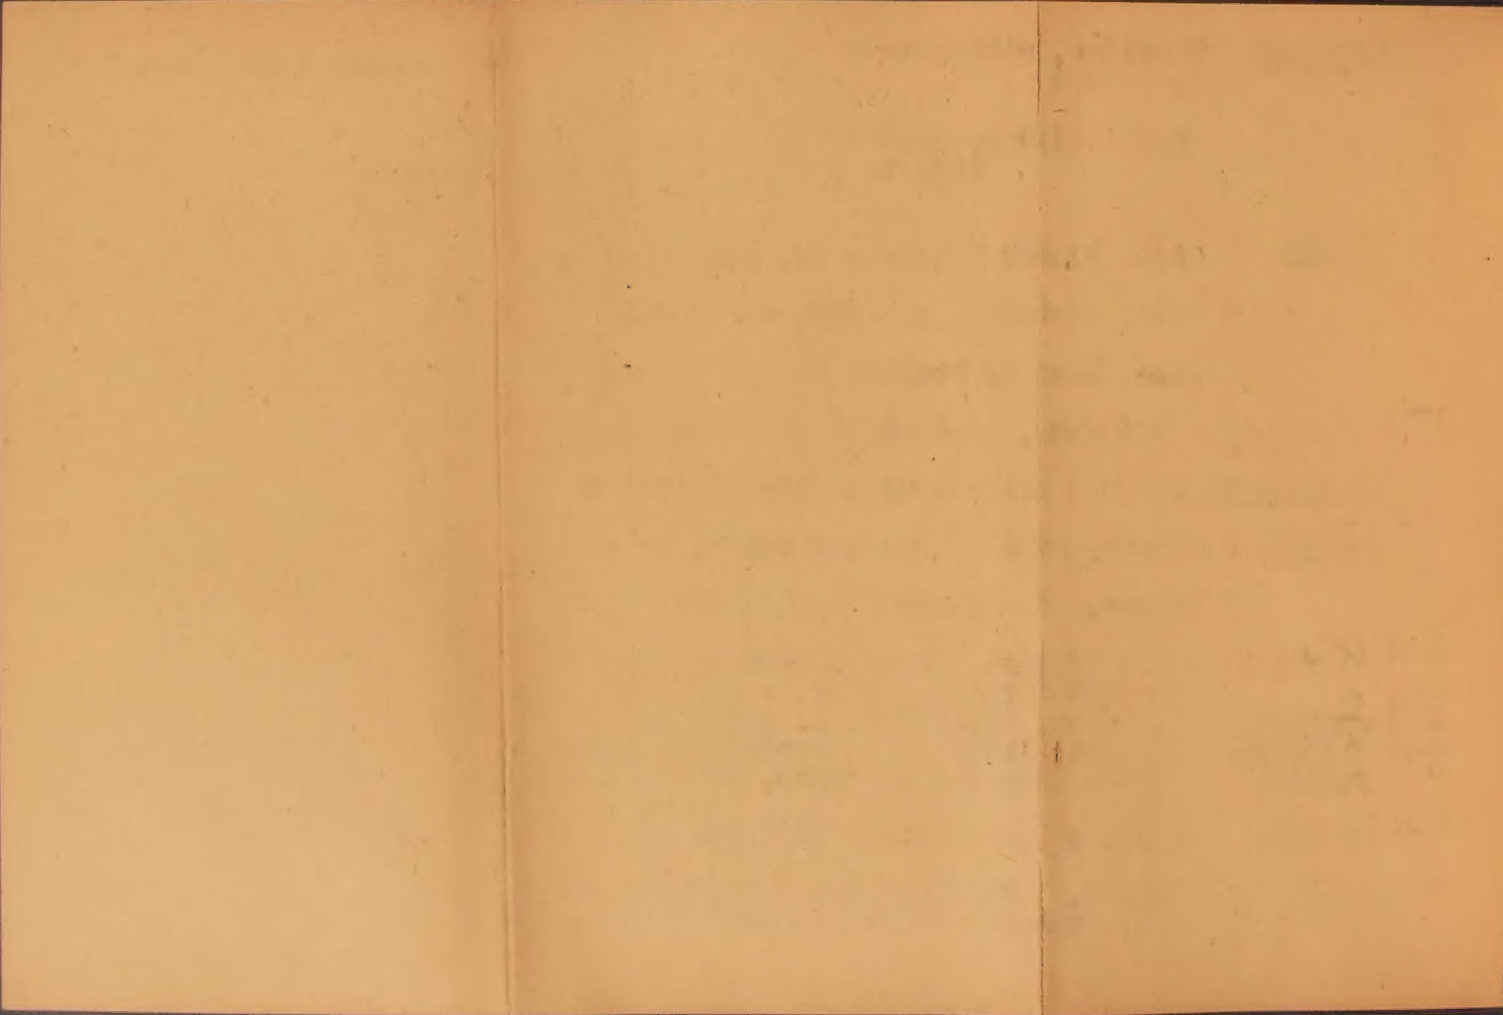

C. E. Seibold,
